Joint Global Infrastructure Conference

Date 23 May 2017

Dear Crossref member,

We would like to invite you to join Crossref, ORCID and DataCite in Seoul on June 15. We are holding a seminar on Joint Global Infrastructure between 8.30 and 12.30 at The Korea Chamber of Commerce & Industry, 39, Sejongdaero, Jung-gu, Seoul, 04513.

Staff from the three organisations will present at the event, and we will be joined by Korean guest speakers to talk about the work they are doing at their organisations. This seminar is interested for anyone working in publishing, research, library and information science, research funders and administrators, data scientists and more.

The provisional agenda for the event is as follows:

8:30 Registration
9:00 Welcome and Introductions to Key Organizations in Scholarly Infrastructure
    Martin Fenner  (DataCite)
    Nobuko Miyairi  (ORCID)
    Rachael Lammey  (Crossref)
9:30 International Industry Initiatives
    The Article Nexus Ed Pentz  (Crossref)
    ORCID Institutional Roundtrip Alice Meadows  (ORCID)
    The OI Project Geoffrey Bilder  (Crossref)
    Metadata 2020 Ginny Hendricks  (Crossref)
    Event Data Martin Fenner  (DataCite)
10:30 Coffee Break
11:00 Korean Use Cases
12:00 Wrap-Up Discussion
12:30 Close

Presentations will be in English and slides will be shared with participants after the event. There will be plenty of time for questions and discussion, and you can submit questions in advance when you sign-up or by emailing feedback@crossref.org.

There is no cost for attending the event, but we do need people to register as space is limited.

You can register using this link:
https://joint-global-infrastructure-conference.eventbrite.com/

Please let me know if you have any questions about the event and we hope to see you there!

Best regards,
Crossref, DataCite and ORCID